

Presents Sun Valley, Idaho March 8-15, 2008

Ketchum/Sun Valley started out like so many Western towns, as a mining center. Miners from all over the world came to extract lead, silver and gold. Now the area is a year-round recreation destination. With 2 ski mountains. Baldy Mountain has 65 runs on 2,054 acres. Luxurious day lodges and on mountain eating establishments will amaze. Dollar Mountain is a beginners dream. Nordic and downhill skiing and boarding, snowmobiling, horseback riding and fly-fishing are a few of the activities.

The Christophe Condoiminiums are 400 yards from the lifts at River Run base. The property has an outdoor heated pool, and hot tub. Shuttle service will take you to the lifts and around town. Bedding is very flexible with many split kings.

2 bedroom 2 bath with 4 sharing $1249.00 per person
